SUMMER INSTITUTE ON CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT IN ANTISEMITISM STUDIES

WELCOME PACKET
16-29 JULY, 2017
ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD
June 15, 2017

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I am writing to welcome you to the Summer Institute on Curriculum Development for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism, to be held at St. John’s College, Oxford, beginning Sunday, 16 July.

I am certain given your qualifications, experience and commitment to understanding and combating antisemitism, and to scholarship itself, that you will add much to the program. The success of the workshop is dependent on the contributions you and our colleagues will bring to the seminar room.

I am optimistic that the Summer Institute will continue to make inroads into creating a “space” within the university for the study of contemporary antisemitism as a new academic discipline. In effect, we are beginning to break a taboo – break the silence.

Through our groundbreaking program, we are developing a formal and informal network of scholars committed to this goal. We will also begin to develop bi-annual international conferences for Critical Interdisciplinary Contemporary Antisemitism Studies. We hope that more professors will teach courses in contemporary antisemitism studies as the years pass and will join our efforts. Your involvement and assistance is very welcome. In fact, we hope you will become an Ambassador for these efforts.

See you in Oxford!

Yours,

Charles Asher Small

ISGAP Summer Institute Convener
ISGAP SUMMER INSTITUTE ON CURRICULUM STUDIES IN ANTISEMITISM
SCHEDULE
JULY 16-JULY 29, 2017
ST. JOHN’S COLLEGE, OXFORD

Sunday, July 16, 2017
6:30 – 8:30 P.M. Welcome Remarks by Dr. Charles Asher Small
Greetings: Rabbi Eli Brackman, Oxford Chabad Society
Lecture: Rabbi Akiva Zweig
“An Authentic Jewish Orthodox View On Antisemitism,
Based On The Five Books of Moses”

8:30 P.M. 24 Days: The True Story of the Ilan Halimi Affair
Film and Discussion

Monday, July 17, 2017
8:20 A.M. Breakfast – Dining Hall
9:00-12:30 P.M. Welcome by Dr. Charles Asher Small and Dr. Carlton Long Carlton Long: “Courage and the Curriculum:
Building Powerful Interdisciplinary Syllabi for the Contemporary Study of Antisemitism” Part I

Dr. Phyllis Ferguson: “Oxford: Town and Gown Visits”
10:30 A.M. Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
11:00 A.M. Dr. Small: Globalization and Antisemitism
12:30 P.M. Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M. Professor Barry Kosmin “The Interdisciplinary Challenge of Teaching and Measuring Antisemitism.”
3:30 P.M. Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

Tuesday, July 18, 2017
8:20 A.M. Breakfast- Dining Hall
9:00-12:30 P.M. Professor Benny Morris: "The Contemporary Implications of the Israeli Arab war of 1948"
10:30 A.M. Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
12:30 P.M. Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M. Professor Olufemi Vaughn: Islamist Resurgence and State Crisis in Nigeria
3:30 P.M. Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
Convener: Dr. Charles Small

Wednesday, July 19, 2017
8:20 A.M. Breakfast – Dining Hall
9:00-12:30 P.M. Professor Benny Morris: "The Two Contemporary Islamic Fundamentalist Threats to the West and Israel”
10:30 A.M. Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
12:30 P.M. Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M.  Dr. Charles Asher Small: “Genocidal Antisemitism as Core Elements of Muslim Brotherhood Ideology”

Carlton Long: “Courage and the Curriculum: Building Powerful Interdisciplinary Syllabi for the Contemporary Study of Antisemitism” Part II

3:30 P.M.  Break - Coffee, Tea and Biscuits
Convener: Dr. Charles Small

Thursday, July 20, 2017
8:20 A.M.  Breakfast – Dining Hall
9:00-12:30 P.M.  Professor David Patterson: "From Hitler to Hamas"
10:30 P.M.  Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
12:30 P.M.  Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M.  Haras Rafiq: " Liberal Secular Democracy - The Triple Threat"
3:30 P.M.  Break - Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
Convener: Dr. Charles Small

Friday, July 21, 2017
8:20 A.M.  Breakfast – Dining Hall
9:00-12:30 P.M.  Professor David Patterson: "The Muslim Brotherhood and the Genealogy of Jihad"
10:30 A.M.  Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
12:30 P.M.  Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M.  Dr. David Hirsh: “Contemporary Left Antisemitism”
  Professor Katya Gibel Mevorach: "Pedagogic Challenges in Teaching About Anti-Semitism and Antisemitism"
3:30 P.M.  Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
Convener: Michelle Whiteman

Saturday, July 22, 2017
FREE DAY
*Optional tour with Dr. Phyllis Ferguson

Sunday, July 23, 2017
FREE DAY
*Optional tour with Dr. Phyllis Ferguson

Monday, July 24, 2017
7:30 A.M.  Coach departs St. John’s College for London
9:45 A.M.  Community Security Trust (CST)
2:00 P.M.  Henry Jackson Society
7:00 P.M.  Coach returns to St. John’s College

Tuesday, July 25, 2017
8:20 A.M.  Breakfast
9:00-12:30 P.M.  Professor Uzi Rabi: “Israel and the Changing Middle East – Reflection of a Neo-Antisemitism?” Part I
10:30 A.M.  Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits
12:30 P.M.  Lunch Break
2:00-5:30 P.M.
Professor Michal Vašečka: “From Masaryk to Butora. Recent Antisemitism in Central Europe and its Functions”

*Professor Ze’ev Khanin: "Antisemitism and "Philosemitism" at War: Jewish Issues in the Interstate and Intrastate Conflicts at the post-Soviet Space"

3:30 P.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

Convener: Dr. Charles Small

Wednesday, July 26, 2017

8:20 A.M.
Breakfast

9:00-12:30 P.M.
Professor Uzi Rabi: “Israel and the Changing Middle East - Reflection of a neo-Antisemitism?” Part II

10:30 A.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

12:30 P.M.
Lunch Break

2:00-5:30 P.M.
Professor Robbie Sabel: “Is there a Role for International Law in Combating Antisemitism?” Dr. Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias: “Fighting Antisemitism with the Tools of Law”

3:30 P.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

Convener: Dr. Charles Small

Thursday, July 27, 2017

8:20 A.M.
Breakfast

9:00-10:45 A.M.
Professor Joel Kotek: “Contemporary Overview of Antisemitism in France and Belgium”

10:45 A.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

11:00-12:45 P.M.
Professor Yossi Shain: “The Reaction of Different Sectors of the Jewish Community to the Rise of Antisemitism in the United States”

12:45 P.M.
Lunch Break

2:15-3:00 PM
Dr. Dovid Katz: Academic Revisionism and the Holocaust

3:45-5:30 P.M.
Dr. Charles Small and Dr. Carlton Long: Workshop in Curriculum Development

3:30 P.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

Convener: Michelle Whiteman

6:00-8:00 P.M.
Dr. Avraham Neguise, Member of Israeli Knesset
Chairman of Committee for Immigration, Absorption and Diaspora Affairs
“Combating Antisemitism and BDS: The Current Reality in the State of Israel”

8:00 P.M.
Farewell Gala Dinner (Location: TBA)

Friday, July 28, 2017

8:20 A.M.
Breakfast

9:00-9:30 A.M.
Dr. Mala Tabory: “Antisemitism in the International Sphere”

9:30-3:00 P.M.
Presentations of Syllabi

10:30 A.M.
Break-Coffee, Tea, Biscuits

12:30 P.M.
Lunch Break

3:00 P.M.
Final Remarks and Conferring of Certificates

4:00 P.M.
Departures

*All seminars are taking place in the North Lecture Room.

*Please note that break times can vary.

Breakfast is served in the hall at 8:20 A.M. from Monday-Friday. Lunch is served in the Hall at 12:30 P.M. from Monday-Thursday. On Fridays, lunch is served at the Kendrew Café.
ISGAP SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT
IN CRITICAL ANTI-SEMITISM STUDIES

July 16 to July 29, 2017

SYLLABUS
ISGAP Summer Institute 2017 Syllabus

READINGS PREPARED BY ROBERT WISTRICH Z’L
FOR THE ISGAP SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT
IN CRITICAL ANTI-SEMITISM STUDIES

SUBJECT ONE: Global Antisemitism:

SUBJECT TWO From Nazi to Islamic and Arab Antisemitism

Jeffrey Herf, Nazi Propaganda for the Arab World (Ann Arbor, 2009)

SUBJECT THREE: The Left, Israel and Anti-Zionism

Robert S. Wistrich, From Ambivalence to Betrayal: The Left, the Jews, and Israel (University of Nebraska Press, 2012)

Arkada Vaksberg, Stalin Against the Jews (New York, 1994)

SUBJECT 3: Post-2000: The “New” Antisemitism in Europe

SYLLABUS 2017

Sunday, July 16

6:30 P.M.-10:00 P.M.   Welcoming Remarks:
Dr. Charles Asher Small, Convener
Executive Director, ISGAP
Tel Aviv University

Lecture: Rabbi Akiva Zweig
Dean (Rosh Yeshiva), Talmudic College of Florida

"An Authentic Jewish Orthodox View On Antisemitism,
Based On The Five Books of Moses"

Film and Discussion:
24 Days: The True Story of the Ilan Halimi Affair
French drama film directed by Alexandre Arcady released in 2014.

***************

Monday, July 17

9:00 A.M.–12:30 P.M.   Introduction: Dr. Charles Asher Small
Executive Director, ISGAP

“Introduction: Creating Critical Contemporary Antisemitism
Studies and Issues of Pedagogy”

--

Introduction: Mr. Carlton long
CEO, Lawrence-Long & Co. Educational Consulting

“Courage and the Curriculum:
Building Powerful Interdisciplinary Syllabi for the Contemporary Study of Antisemitism” Part I

Readings (Long):

See Professor Pack
Readings (Small)

Charles Asher Small, “Global Antisemitism: Crisis of Modernity” Introduction

Recommended Readings:

2:00 P.M.–5:30 P.M. Dr. Barry Kosmin
Research Professor, Trinity College, Connecticut

“The Interdisciplinary Challenge of Teaching and Measuring Antisemitism.”

Bibliography

Karl Marx, Der Judenfrage - On the Jewish Question, 1843
Richard Wagner, Das Judentum in der Musik, 1869
Friedrich Neitzsche, The Genealogy of Morals, 1899
Houston Stewart Chamberlain, England und Deutschland, Munich, Bruckmann, 1915
Julien Benda, La Trahison des Clercs, Paris 1927
Sigmund Freud, Moses and Monotheism, 1939
George Orwell, ‘Antisemitism in Britain,’ Contemporary Jewish Record. London, April 1945

Measurement

***************

Tuesday, July 18

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.  Professor Benny Morris
Department of History and Middle Eastern Studies
Ben Gurion University

“The Contemporary Implications of the 1948 Israeli Arab War”

Readings
Benny Morris, "Righteous Victims, A History of the Arab-Zionist Conflict, 1881-1999"
Robert Wistrich, "A Lethal Obsession"
2:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.

Professor Olufemi Vaughan
Geoffrey Canada Professor of Africana Studies and History, Bowdoin College

“Islamist Resurgence and State Crisis in Nigeria”

Readings

***************

Wednesday, July 19

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.

Professor Benny Morris
History and Middle Eastern Studies, Ben Gurion University

“The Two Contemporary Islamic Fundamentalist Threats to the West and Israel”

Readings

See Above.

2:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.

Dr. Charles Asher Small
Executive Director, ISGAP

“Genocidal Antisemitism as Core Elements of Muslim Brotherhood Ideology”

--

Carlton Long
CEO, Lawrence-Long & Co. Educational Consulting

“Courage and the Curriculum: Building Powerful Interdisciplinary Syllabi for the Contemporary Study of Antisemitism” Part II
ISGAP Summer Institute 2017 Syllabus

Readings (Long)
See Professor Pack

******************************

Thursday, July 20

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.  Professor David Patterson
Hillel Feinberg Chair in Holocaust Studies
Ackerman Center for Holocaust Studies
University of Texas at Dallas

"From Hitler to Hamas"

Readings

Brackman, Harold, “‘Hitler Put Them in Their Place’: Egypt’s Muslim Brotherhood’s Jihad
Against Jews, Judaism, and Israel,” Simon Wiesenthal Center, 2011
Herf, Jeffrey, “Nazi Germany and the Arab and Muslim World: Old and New Scholarship,” July 2008
IslamicSupremacism.org – A Short Course, “Grand Mufti of Jerusalem Hajj Amin al-Husseini”
Küntzel, Matyas, “National Socialism and Anti-Semitism in the Arab World”

2:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.  Haras Rafiq
CEO, Quilliam (Foundation), London, UK

“Liberal Secular Democracy - The Triple Threat”

******************************

Friday, July 21

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.  Professor David Patterson
Hillel Feinberg Chair in Holocaust Studies
Ackerman Center for Holocaust Studies
University of Texas at Dallas

"The Muslim Brotherhood and the Genealogy of Jihad"

Readings

See above.
2:00 P.M.–5:30 P.M.

Professor David Hirsh
Lecturer in Sociology, Goldsmiths, University of London

“Contemporary Left Antisemitism”

---

Professor Katya Gibel Mevorach
Anthropology & American Studies
Grinnell College

"Pedagogic Challenges in Teaching About Anti-Semitism and Antisemitism"

Reading (Hirsh)
Hirsh, David: Contemporary Left Antisemitism (Routledge, 2017)

Reading (Gibel Mevorach)

***************

Monday, July 24
Trip to London
Morning Session at Community Security Trust (CST)
Speakers: Michael Whine
Mark Gardener
Afternoon Session at Henry Jackson Society: Panel Discussion (Tom Wilson, Alan Mendoza
Tuesday, July 25

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.  Professor Uzi Rabi
Director, Dayan Center, Tel Aviv University

“Israel and the Changing Middle East - Reflection of a Neo-Antisemitism?” Part I

Readings

Rabi, Uzi, “The Arab Spring”: The Struggle for Yemen’s Future”.
Put titles
Ben Mendales, Uzi Rabi: “Tel Aviv Notes: Keeping the Pieces but Changing the Board, The Moshe Dayan Centre for Middle Eastern and African Studies, http://dayan.org/content/tel-aviv-notes-keeping-pieces-changing-board “International Intervention in Local Conflicts”, Edited by Uzi Rabi.

2:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.  Dr. Michal Vašečka
Department of Social Studies
Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic

“From Masaryk to Batora. Recent Antisemitism in Central Europe and its Functions"

--

Dr. Ze’ev Khanin
Department of Political Science at Ariel and Bar-Ilan Universities

"Antisemitism and "Philosemitism" at War: Jewish Issues in the Interstate and Intrastate Conflicts at the post-Soviet Space."
Bibliography (Vasecka):

***************

Wednesday, July 26

9:00 A.M.-12:30 P.M.
Professor Uzi Rabi
Director, Dayan Center, Tel Aviv University

"Israel and the changing Middle East - Reflection of a Neo-Antisemitism?" Part II

Reading: See previous list.
2:00-3:30 P.M.  Professor Robbie Sabel
Professor, International Law
Hebrew University, Jerusalem

"Is there a Role for International Law in Combating Antisemitism?"

4:00-5:30 P.M.  Dr. Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias
Senior Researcher, Poznań Human Rights Centre
Institute of Law Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences

“Fighting Antisemitism with the Tools of Law"

Readings (Sabel)

EUMC Working Definition of Antisemitism

Readings (Gliszczynska-Grabias)

Factsheet, “Hate Speech”, Council of Europe, 2008
Working Definition of Antisemitism
Thursday, July 27

9:00 A.M.-12:45 P.M.  Dr. Joel Kotek
Free University of Brussels (ULB) and
The Institut d’Études Politiques de Paris.

“Contemporary Overview of Antisemitism in France and Belgium”

Professor Yossi Shain
Comparative Government and Diaspora Politics,
Georgetown University Political Science and Director, Tel Aviv University School of Political Science, Government and International Affairs

“The Reaction of Different Sectors of the Jewish Community to the Rise of Antisemitism in the United States”

Readings (Kotek)

2:15 P.M.-3:00 P.M.  Dr. Dovid Katz
Professor (adjunct), Philosophy and Communications Program
Vilnius Gediminas Technical University

Academic Revisionism and the Holocaust
3:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.  Workshop in Curriculum development

Dr. Charles Asher Small
Executive Director, ISGAP
Tel Aviv University

Carlton Long
CEO, Lawrence-Long & Co. Educational Consulting

6:00 PM-8:00 PM
Dr. Avraham Neguise
Member of Israeli Knesset,
Chairman of Committee of Immigration, Absorption and Diaspora Affairs

“Combating Antisemitism and BDS: The Current Reality in the State of Israel”

Friday, July 28

9:00 A.M.–9:30 P.M.
Dr. Mala Tabory
Director, ISGAP Israel and editor, Justice, journal of the International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists

“Antisemitism in the International Sphere”

9:30-3:30 P.M.
Presentation of syllabi by Scholars-in-Residence

3:30-4:00 P.M.
Final Remarks
Ambassadors for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism: Ways Forward
Graduate Certificate Awards

**************************
Dr. Phyllis Ferguson
phyllisferguson@hotmail.com
Since 2010 Phyllis Ferguson has been a member of Oxford Transitional Justice Research Group in University of Oxford and its Hirondelle Project, while writing on post-conflict in Timor and on Oxford’s Timorese community. Her present research is on ‘Transnationalism: The generation left behind, the generations here: loneliness and longing – becoming Timorese there and being East Timorese in Oxford’; it is part of a book in progress. She co-authored a report on Contestations around FGM: Activism and the Academy, an IGS e-book, 2016. She was an organiser for the 5th S.E. Asian Studies Symposium - Human and Environmental Welfare in Southeast Asia, and of its Festival of SE Asia in Oxford, including an exhibition on S.E. Asian Vernacular Architecture, in 2016.

Dr Ferguson was a member of the History and Social Studies faculties, of Congregation and of St Antony’s College, Oxford, where she coordinated African Studies Programmes from 1987 to 1998. For the next five years she worked through the Socio-Legal Studies Centre of the Law Faculty with the cooperative International Human Rights Law Group, organising seminars on the Pinochet Case and international conferences on the death penalty in the US, on the situation of prisoners held at Guantanamo Bay and the visit of Hugo Chavez to Oxford in 2002.

In 2003 Phyllis Ferguson began working in Timor-Leste, first at the Reception, Truth and Reconciliation Commission, CAVR, researching and writing Chega! - the 5 volume report of the 24-year Indonesian Occupation 1975-1999. She then worked for the UN on Peacebuilding and Human Rights initiatives for women and children and on non-violent Education and Training with INGOs and NGOs. In the crisis of 2006 she worked to provide support for women and children in the complex emergency of 170,000 displaced in IDP camps, and at UNDP and UNWomen she continued research to monitor the emerging role of Timorese women in national and local politics, including work on the legislation against Domestic Violence, until 2010.
Dr. Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias
a.gliszczynska@poczta.onet.pl
Currently Senior Researcher at the Poznań Human Rights Centre, Institute of Law Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences, Dr Gliszczynska-Grabias is a Polish national with policy and legal expertise in the fields of anti-discrimination law, constitutional law, freedom of speech, hate speech and hate crimes, and memory laws. She graduated from the Faculty of Law, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland, and in November 2012 she defended her PhD on counteracting antisemitism with legal instruments of the international human rights law.

Based on her doctoral thesis, Dr Gliszczynska-Grabias published a book entitled Combating Antisemitism: International Law Instruments (in Polish, Wolters Kluwer 2014, 613 pp.). In 2015 it received honourable mention in the national competition named after Professor Manfred Lachs for the best publications in international public law in Poland. Her other publications include a number of books, co-authored and co-edited by her. She is co-editor and co-author of Law and Memory: Addressing Historical Injustice through Law to be published by Cambridge University Press in 2017. She has also published a number of articles in refereed scholarly journals, both in Poland and internationally.

Dr Gliszczynska-Grabias has participated in various national and international research projects, including: The UN Human Rights Protection Mechanisms - A Systemic Analysis, sponsored by the National Science Centre of Poland – as a leading expert (2013-2016), and Europe at the Edge of Pluralism: Legal Aspects of Diversity in Europe, coordinated by the Erik Castrén Institute of International Law and Human Rights, Faculty of Law, University of Helsinki (2013-2014). In 2015/2016 she has conducted research on BDS movement within a grant awarded by Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

A recipient of the 2015-2018 Fellowship of the Polish Ministry of Science and Higher Education for outstanding achievements in science and research, Dr Gliszczynska-Grabias was also Bohdan Winiarski Fellow at the Lauterpacht Centre of the University of Cambridge in 2014, and Graduate Fellow of the Yale Initiative for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism, Yale University (2010/2011).
Professor David Hirsh

hirshd@gmail.com

David studied Sociology as an undergraduate at City University, London. He did an MA in Philosophy and Social Theory at Warwick University and he wrote his PhD there on Crimes Against Humanity and International Law.

He was the holder of the Sociological Review Fellowship 2001-2, which enabled him to write Law against Genocide: cosmopolitan trials, published in 2003. This book was awarded the British Sociological Association Philip Abrams Prize for the best first book in sociology in 2004. By focusing on two trials from the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, the trial of Andrei Sazoniuik for crimes committed during the Holocaust, and the David Irving libel case, the book comes to some tentative conclusions about the possibility of the emergence of cosmopolitan law.

David received a Rothschild/Hanadiv Foundation research grant of £25000 for a project 'to investigate the character and dynamics of anti-Zionism as a contemporary political movement and its relationship to antisemitism' (January 2007 to August 2007). The central research output made possible by this funding was a major Working Paper published by the Yale Initiative for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism, entitled Anti-Zionism and Antisemitism: Cosmopolitan Reflections. Hear him talk about the paper. In 2006/7, David was a Research Fellow at Yale University. His upcoming book, Contemporary Left Antisemitism, will be out in September 2017.

Professor Dovid Katz

dovidkatz7@yahoo.com

Professor Dovid Katz, PhD, Oxford University, UK. In 2016 he was appointed professor at Vilnius Gediminas Technical University. He was born in New York City on 9 May 1956. He attended Etz Chaim and East Midwood elementary schools, the Yeshivah of Flatbush High School, and Columbia University where he earned his BA in Linguistics in 1978. That year he relocated to the United Kingdom to begin work on his doctoral thesis on the origins of the Semitic component in Yiddish, which he completed at London University in 1982. From 1978 to 1997 he led Yiddish studies at Oxford and built a major international program that included BA and MA courses, a doctoral program, an intensive summer course and winter symposium, and series of publication in Yiddish and English.

Dr. Joel Kotek
Joel.kotek1@telenet.be Joël Kotek teaches at the Free University of Brussels (ULB) and the Institut d’Études Politiques de Paris. After completing research at St. Antony's College, Oxford, and one semester of teaching a course in Europe's Political Systems at the University of Ottawa, he successfully defended his doctoral thesis at the Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris (IEP). The thesis was published in French as La jeune garde by Le Seuil in 1998 and a short English version, titled Students and The Cold War was published by Macmillan/St. Martin Press in 1996. Dr. Kotek is member of several scientific committees including: Mémorial de la Shoah de Paris, Jewish museum of Warsaw, Mechelen Holocaust museum, Foundation Aladdin (Paris), Evens Foundation (Antwerpen), Yahad in Unum (Paris). Kotek was the head of the formation Department at the Mémorial de la Shoah/Centre de Documentation juive contemporaine in Paris (2003-2006) and is, since, 2003, the Belgian correspondent of the Moshe Cantor Center on Anti-Semitism and Racism and hold in the Free University of Brussels (ULB) a course on the Holocaust and genocide in the 20th Century. He is an ISGAP research fellow.

Dr. Vladimir (Ze’ev) Khanin
zeevkh@gmail.com
Dr. Vladimir (Ze’ev) Khanin is one of the leading Israeli expert on Russian Jewish community in Israel and the Diaspora and the FSU politics. He got his Ph.D. in Political Science from Moscow Institute for African studies, the USSR Academy of Sciences in 1989, and in 1991 completed post-Doctoral studies in the Institute for Russian and Soviet Studies at the University of Oxford, U.K. He currently serves as Chief Scientist (Senior Adviser to Minister on Research and Strategic Planning) of the Israeli Ministry of Immigrant Absorption. He is also Associate Professor, Dept. of Political and Middle Eastern Studies at the Ariel University of Samaria and lectures Political Studies at Bar-Ilan University, Israel. He served as a Visiting lecturer in Israeli and FSU Government, Politics and Society in a few Universities in the Great Britain and the FSU (including London, Moscow, Kiev, Riga, Minsk and Baku) and as a political commentator at the Israeli Channel Nine TV, The Voice of Israel Radio, and BBC Russian Service. His interviews and articles often appear at various Israeli, USA and European, as well as Russian and other FSU printed and electronic media assets.

His academic publications include 8 books, 9 edited collections, several monographs, and numerous articles on Israeli, East European, Jewish and African politics and society. Among the books are: Documents on Ukrainian Jewish Identity and Emigration (London, 2004); "Russian" Israelis at "Home" and "Abroad": Migration, Identity and Culture (Ramat-Gan, 2011); Post-Soviet Jewish Youth (Moscow and Ramat-Gan, 2013); Political Party Systems and Electoral Trends in Israel of the Early 21st Century (Moscow, 2014); Joining the Jewish Collective: Formalizing the Jewish Status of Repatriates from the Former USSR of non-Jewish and Mixed Origin in Israel (Jerusalem, 2014), "The Third Israel": Russian-speaking Community and Politics in the Contemporary Jewish State (Moscow, 2015)
Dr. Barry Kosmin
Barry.kosmin@trincoll.edu

Barry A. Kosmin is currently Research Professor of Public Policy and Law at Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut and Founding Director of its Institute for the Study of Secularism in Society and Culture (ISSSC). He is a Senior Associate of the Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies, Oxford University, England. During his career he has held executive positions with the Institute for Jewish Policy Research, London, the Board of Deputies of British Jews and the Council of Jewish Federations, New York.

Carlton Long
carltonlong@llandco.org

An experienced U.S. educator with nearly twenty years of experience as a professional staff developer, Carlton Long has trained college professors and administrators, as well as K-12 teachers, principals and district leaders in private as well as public school systems nationwide. He has guided U.S. college faculties and administrators in the development of over 55 new honors and leadership courses, with an emphasis on constructivist and metacognitive approaches to pedagogy. Last summer, he also guided ISGAP Summer Institute Scholars-in-Residence through their development of rigorous and interdisciplinary course syllabi on contemporary global antisemitism. A Rhodes Scholar (Indiana & St. Catherine's, 1984), his research at the University of Oxford has focused on racial policymaking in Britain and the U.S., with a special focus on the communities of Brixton (South London) and Harlem (New York).
Professor Katya Gibel Mevorach
gibel@grinnell.edu
Professor Katya Gibel Mevorach is Professor, Anthropology Department and Chair, American Studies Concentration, at Grinnell College in Grinnell, IA (USA) and earned her Ph.D. in Cultural Anthropology from Duke University. Prof. Gibel Mevorach received her B.A. and M.A. in African Studies from Hebrew University of Jerusalem in Israel.

Professor Gibel Mevorach is author, under name, Katya Gibel Azoulay of Black, Jewish and Interracial: It's Not the Color of Your Skin but the Race of Your Kin, and Other Myths of Identity (Duke University Press, 1997) an explication of identities in the public sphere.

Journals in which her articles, review essays and position papers have appeared include American Anthropologist, American Ethnologist, Biography, Developing World Bioethics, Identities, Cultural Studies, Research in African Literatures, Noga (Israeli Feminist Journal) and The Jerusalem Post (Israel). Gibel Mevorach has dual American - Israeli citizenship. She moved to Israel in 1970 after graduating from The Brearley School in New York and returned to the U.S. in 1991 to pursue doctoral studies and joined the faculty at Grinnell College in January 1996.

Professor Benny Morris
Morrisbenny8@gmail.com
Benny Morris was born in Israel and grew up in Jerusalem and New York. He studied at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and Cambridge University, was a journalist at The Jerusalem Post for more than a decade, and has been teaching Middle East history at Ben-Gurion University since 1997. He has written a number of books on the Israeli-Arab conflict (most of which appeared with Oxford UP, Cambridge UP and Yale UP).
Member of Knesset Avraham Neguise

Avraham Neguise was born in 5718, 1958, and immigrated to Israel from Gondar, Ethiopia in 1985. He holds a Ph.D. in Education from Sussex University in England, a BA and MA in Social Work from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, a MA in Entrepreneurship and Innovation from Swinburne University of Technology in Melbourne Australia, and a LLB from the Sha’arei Mishpat Academic Center. He served as Director General of "South Wing to Zion" - an association promoting the immigration and absorption of Ethiopian Jews.

Neguise was elected to the 20th Knesset on behalf of the Likud Party. He chairs the Committee for Immigration, Absorption and Diaspora Affairs, and is a member of the House Committee, State Control Committee, the Labor, Welfare and Health Committee, the Subcommittee on the Status of the Elderly and the Subcommittee to Care for Homeless Youngsters.

Neguise chairs the Lobby for US-Israel Relations, the Lobby for Relations between Israel and Africa, the Lobby for Improving the Knesset’s Status and the Lobby for the Advancement of Youths. He is also a member of the Lobby for Eretz Israel in the Knesset, the Lobby for Strengthening the Jewish World, the Lobby for the Promotion of Sports and an Athletic Lifestyle, the Lobby for Fair Pension, the Lobby for the Negev, the Lobby for Small and Medium Sized Businesses in Israel, the Lobby for the Struggle Against Delegitimization of the State of Israel and the Lobby for the Fight against Bureaucracy and for Reform in Public Administration.

Neguise heads the Israel-Ethiopia, Israel-Ghana, Israel-Ivory Coast and Israel-Rwanda Parliamentary Friendship Groups.

Professor David Patterson
dxp103120@utdallas.edu

David Patterson holds the Hillel A. Feinberg Chair in Holocaust Studies in the Ackerman Center for Holocaust Studies at the University of Texas at Dallas. He serves as the Series Editor of the Antisemitism Series at the Academic Studies Press, as well as the Co-Editor of the Weinstein Series in Post-Holocaust Studies at the University of Washington Press. A winner of the National Jewish Book Award and the Koret Jewish Book Award, he has published more than 35 books and more than 200 articles, essays, and book chapters. His most recent books include The Holocaust and the Non-Representable (forthcoming), Anti-Semitism and Its Metaphysical Origins (2015); Genocide in Jewish Thought (2012); A Genealogy of Evil: Ant-Semitism from Nazism to Islamic Jihad (2011); and Emil L. Fackenheim: A Jewish Philosopher’s Response to the Holocaust (2008).
Professor Uzi Rabi
urabi@post.tau.ac.il
Uzi Rabi is the Director of the Moshe Dayan Center for Middle Eastern and African Studies and former chair of the Department of Middle Eastern and African History at Tel Aviv University. His fields of specialization include: Oil and politics in the Middle East; Iranian-Arab relations; and Sunni-Shi’i tensions. Professor Rabi is the author of numerous publications, academic articles, and book reviews. His most recent publications are the edited volume titled International Intervention in Local Conflicts (I.B. Tauris 2010) and Yemen: Revolution, Civil War and Unification (I.B. Tauris 2014). His forthcoming book project is States and Religion in the Era of Revolution: The Changing Face of the 21st Century Middle East. Professor Rabi is a senior researcher in the Center for Iranian Studies at Tel Aviv University. He is regularly invited by the Israeli Knesset to deliver updates and briefs on current developments in the Middle East.

Haras Rafiq
haras@outlook.com
Haras Rafiq is Quilliam’s Managing Director. He was formerly a member of the UK Government task force looking at countering extremism in response to the 2005 terrorist bombings in London, as well as being a peer mentor for IDeA – advising regional Government agencies. In addition, Haras has worked on a number of projects relating to the analysis of radicalization, as well as the deradicalization of extremists, and has presented on a number of academic and political platforms, nationally and internationally. As part of his work, Haras is committed to countering xenophobia and hatred, and has spoken at many conferences and events, including the Global Forum on combating anti-Semitism (December 2009), as well as being a Chair of a working group of the Global Experts’ Forum on anti-Semitism in Ottawa in 2010.
Professor Robbie Sabel
Robbie.sabel@mail.huji.ac.il
Ph.D. Professor of International Law, Faculty of Law Hebrew University, Jerusalem. Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, The Hague, Former:
Counselor for Political Affairs Israel Embassy
Washington; The Legal Adviser Israel Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Foreign Ministry’s Deputy Director
General for Arms Control and Disarmament; MFA
Coordinator for combatting Antisemitism: Head of Israel Delegation, Taba arbitration with Egypt; Member of delegation, peace talks with Egypt, Jordan and Palestinians. Arbitrator on the Appeals Panel of the International Commission on Holocaust Era Insurance Claims. Personal rank of Ambassador. Publications include:
PROCEDURE IN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES, (Cambridge University Press, 3rd edition
forthcoming November 2017); INTERNATIONAL LAW, (Faculty of Law, The Hebrew University Jerusalem, 3rd edition 2016).107 Yasmin St. Mevasseret 9077404 ISRAEL.

Professor Yossi Shain
Shain.yossi@gmail.com
Yossi Shain (born September 21, 1956 in Israel) is the Romulo Betancourt Professor of Political Science at Tel
Aviv University where he also serves as Chairman of the Political Science Department, head of the Abba Eban Graduate Studies Program in Diplomacy and Director of the Frances Brody Institute for Applied Diplomacy. He is also a Full Professor of Comparative Government and Diaspora Politics at Georgetown University, and the Founding Director of the Program for Jewish Civilization
(PJC) at Georgetown. In 2007, he also served (pro-bono) as President of Western Galilee College. Shain earned his B.A. (Philosophy-1981 cum laude) and M.A. (Political Science-1983) degrees from Tel Aviv University and received his Ph.D. in Political Science (with distinction) from Yale University in 1988.

Since 1989, he has taught Political Science at Tel Aviv University, where he served as Department Chair from 1996 to 1999 and again from 2013 -. He was also Head of the Hartog School of Government from 2003 to 2007 and co-director (with Peter Berkowitz) of the Israel Program on Constitutional Government 2003-2008. Shain also held many visiting appointments, including at Sciences Po in Paris, Yale University, Wesleyan University, the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and Middlebury College. He was also a Visiting Fellow at St. Antony's College, Oxford University, and Senior Visiting Fellow at the Center of International Studies at Princeton University. Shain has lectured around the world and was honored as the David and Goldie Blanksteen in Jewish Ethics at Yale Law School (2000), as Olin Lecturer at the Harvard Lecturer Academy (2002) and as the Aaron and Cecile Goldman Chair at Georgetown (three consecutive times
Dr. Mala Tabory
Mala.tabory@isgap.org

Mala Tabory holds a B.A. from Barnard College, Columbia University (cum laude) and an M.A. and Ph.D. from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in International Relations, specializing in International Law. She served in the Legal Division at the UN Secretariat as part of a Fellowship Program, and she was a Research Fellow at the Center for the Study of Human Rights at Columbia University. She has conducted research at the Davis Center on Russian and Eurasian Studies at Harvard University.

Her fields of expertise include public international law and human rights, international organizations, and diplomacy, immigration, and citizenship law. She has published several books, including Multilingualism in International Law and Institutions: The Multinational Force and Observers in the Sinai, and significant articles on international law and minority rights. She served as a member of the Israeli team at the Taba Arbitration with Egypt and as a member of the Israeli negotiating team for the Peace Treaty with Jordan.

Dr. Tabory has academic experience at Bar Ilan and Tel Aviv universities. She has coordinated courses on “Legal Aspects of the Middle East Peace Process” for American law students under the auspices of the Tel Aviv Law Faculty and Temple University Law School. She edited the Israel Yearbook on Human Rights at Tel Aviv University’s Faculty of Law.

During most of her public career, Dr. Tabory filled senior research and diplomatic posts in a special unit in the Israel Prime Minister’s Office, involving the immigration of a million individuals from the former Soviet Union. She is currently the editor of Justice, the journal of the International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists, and Director of the Israel branch of ISGAP.

Dr. Michal Vašečka
mvasecka@fss.muni.cz

Dr. Michal Vašečka (1972) is sociologist by background and he operates at the Faculty of Social Studies of Masaryk University in Brno since 2002 and at the Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts since 2015. He focuses his interests on issues of ethnicity, race, and migration studies. As a visiting scholar he operated at the New School University in New York (1996-1997) and at the University of London (1998), in 2008-2009 he lectured at the Georgetown University in Washington, DC, in 2015 at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, in 2016 he was a scholar-in-residence in the ISGAP at Oxford University. Michal Vašečka is a founder of the Center for the Research of Ethnicity and Culture, he served a director of the CVEK in the period from January 2006 to May 2012. In 1998-2005 he operated at the Slovak think-tank Institute of Public Affairs as a program director on expert analysis of the Slovak transformation process with a focus on national minorities and the state of civil society in Slovakia. He has been a consultant for the World Bank in 2000-2008 and in 2011-2012. Since September 2012 Michal Vašečka serves as a representative of the Slovak republic in the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI), human rights body of the Council of Europe. Since 2010 Michal Vašečka is a chairman of the Board of the Fulbright Commission in Slovakia. Dr. Vašečka serves as a non-resident research associate at the European Centre for Minority Issues in Flensburg.
Professor Olufemi Vaughan
ovaughan@bowdoin.edu
Olufemi Vaughan is Geoffrey Canada Professor of Africana Studies and History at Bowdoin College where he teaches courses in African studies and African diaspora studies. He is the author or editor of ten books, over 40 scholarly articles, and many reviews, including the award-winning book, Nigerian Chiefs: Traditional Power in Modern Politics, 1890s-1990s (University of Rochester Press) and Religion and the Making of Nigeria (forthcoming, Duke University Press). He is a senior editor of the Oxford Research Encyclopedia in African History, and was a fellow and public policy scholar at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for scholars.

Rabbi Akiva Zweig
akivazweig@gmail.com
Rabbi Akiva Zweig has studied and lectured for over 30 years at Talmudic College of Florida in Miami Beach. He also studied several years abroad in Ner Israel Rabbinical college in Baltimore, Maryland and in several Yeshivos in Israel. He has also served as the rabbi of several South Florida synagogues, both Ashkenaz and Sefarad.

Rabbi Zweig graduated from Talmudic University of Florida, with a Masters in Talmudic Law in 1995, and then continued on in the faculty, teaching in the High School, as well as in the University in both the under-graduate and graduate programs. He lectures at the highest levels on Scripture, Talmudic Law, Jewish History, Jewish philosophy and Jewish ethics.

Currently, Rabbi Zweig is a Rosh Yeshiva at the Talmudic College of Florida. He teaches a variety of weekly and daily classes, including Talmud, Jewish Perspective, Jewish philosophy, Prayer, and Jewish Ethics. He oversees the staff, as well as the self development of young Jewish college students, including academically. He helps prepare them for careers and leadership, in both the Jewish world and the secular work world.

Additionally, Rabbi Zweig teaches weekly classes to the broader South Florida Jewish community to men and women of all ages. Rabbi Zweig is also a licensed facilitator of the Franklin Covey 7 Habits Signature Program. He lectures in seminars, as well as does private coaching and counseling.

He has lectured extensively in a wide range of Jewish subjects in schools, synagogues and workshops, including Passover programs and weekend retreats across America and in other countries. He is a much sought after speaker.
Dr. Charles Asher Small
Charles.small@isgap.org

Charles Asher Small is the founding Director and President of the Institute for the Study of Global Antisemitism and Policy (ISGAP). He is also a Visiting Professor at the Moshe Dayan Centre for Middle East and African Studies, Tel Aviv University, and was the Koret Distinguished Fellow, Hoover Institution, Stanford University. Charles received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, McGill University, Montreal; M.Sc. in Urban Development Planning in Economics, Development Planning Unit (DPU), University College London; and a Doctorate of Philosophy (D.Phil), St. Antony’s College, Oxford University. Charles completed post-doctorate research at the Groupement de recherche ethnicité et société, Université de Montréal. He was the VATAT Research Fellow (Ministry of Higher Education) at Ben Gurion University, Beersheva, and taught in departments of sociology and geography at Goldsmiths’ College, University of London; Tel Aviv University; and the Institute of Urban Studies, Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

Charles convened groundbreaking academic seminar series in the emerging field of contemporary antisemitism studies at Columbia University, Fordham University, Harvard University, McGill University, National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy, Kyiv, Sapienza University, Rome, the Sorbonne and the CNRS, Paris, Stanford University, University of Miami, Yale University, as well as an academic training programme for professors at Hertford College, St. John’s College, and St. Antony’s College, Oxford.

Charles was the founding Director of the Yale Initiative for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism (YIISA), the first interdisciplinary research center on antisemitism at a North American university. At Yale he taught in the Political Science Department and the Program on Ethics, Politics and Economics, and ran a post-doctorate and graduate studies fellowship program at YIISA. He was also an Associate Professor and the Director of Urban Studies at Southern Connecticut State University (SCSU), as well as an Assistant Professor at Tel Aviv University in the Department of Geography. He lectured internationally and worked as a consultant and policy advisor in North America, Europe, Southern Africa, and the Middle East. Charles specializes in social and cultural theory, globalization and national identity, socio-cultural policy, social movements, and racism(s) – including antisemitism(s).

Charles is the author of books and articles including the six Volume “Global Antisemitism: A Crisis of Modernity” (Brill and ISGAP); “The Yale Papers: Antisemitism in Comparative Perspective”, ISGAP (2015); “Antisemitism in Comparative Perspective: Volume Two (2016); and “Social Theory – a Historical Analysis of Canadian Socio-cultural Policies Race and the Other”, Eleven International Publishers (2013); Charles is committed to creating scholarly programming and research on contemporary antisemitism at top tier universities internationally, and establishing contemporary antisemitism studies as a recognized academic discipline.
Dr. Alan Mendoza
Executive Director
Dr. Alan Mendoza is a Founder and the Executive Director of the Henry Jackson Society, and directs analysis, research focus, strategy and development for the organization. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, a member of the Advisory Board of the Electric Infrastructure Security Council, and the presenter of “Current Affairs” on the J-TV news channel. He has a B.A. and M.Phil in History from Cambridge University and a Ph.D. at the same institution focusing on Anglo-American relations during the Bosnian War, 1992-1995.

Tom Wilson
Research Fellow
Tom Wilson is a Fellow at the Centre for the Response to Radicalisation and Terrorism and the Centre for the New Middle East at The Henry Jackson Society. Tom specializes in the study of extremist groups and counter-terrorism strategy. His research has focused on both the growth of extremism in the UK as well as terrorist organizations in the Middle East. He regularly appears in broadcast media, including BBC, Sky and CNN, offering his analysis on the issues of extremism and terrorism, and has been published in The Wall Street Journal, the Telegraph, the Spectator, Commentary Magazine, Standpoint, and other outlets.
Michael Whine
Mike.W@cst.org.uk
Michael Whine is the Government and International Affairs Director at the Community Security Trust. He also acts as Consultant on Defence and Security to the European Jewish Congress, and represents it at the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE).

In 2002 he was appointed a member of the Hate Crime Independent Advisors Group at the Ministry of Justice of the United Kingdom.

Between 2010 and 2012, he acted as Lay Advisor to the Counter Terrorism Division of the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS), and in 2013, he was appointed to the Hate Crime Scrutiny and Involvement Panel of the London CPS, which assesses and evaluates hate crime prosecution cases.

Since 2008, he has on occasions, also represented the Government of the United Kingdom at OSCE conferences and National Point of Contact on Hate Crime meetings.

He has been professionally employed as a researcher on extremism, antisemitism and terrorism for over twenty five years.

He was appointed MBE in the 2012 New Year Honours.
Michelle Whiteman
Michelle.whiteman@isgap.org

Michelle Whiteman is Director of the Canadian Institute for the Study of Global Antisemitism and Policy (ISGAP-Canada), an organization which is separate from ISGAP, and which runs a seminar on critical studies of contemporary forms of antisemitism at McGill University in Montreal. In addition to the seminar, ISGAP Canada is involved in research and publishing materials on antisemitism and racism. A graduate of l’Université de Sherbrooke and Queen’s University law schools, where she earned civil and common law degrees, Ms. Whiteman is an experienced French-English translator.

Before her association with ISGAP Canada, Ms. Whiteman was the Quebec Director of Honest Reporting Canada. Her articles have appeared in the Huffington Post, the Jerusalem Post, the National Post, and other media outlets.

Ira Guberman
Ira.guberman@isgap.org

Ira Guberman is the Manager of Programming and Operations for ISGAP. At ISGAP he coordinates the seminar series on contemporary forms of antisemitism at the ISGAP Center and Columbia Law School in New York City. Additionally, he disseminates ISGAP communications to the organization’s network of supporters and regularly liaises with the various branches of ISGAP. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations at the University of Delaware. At the University of Pittsburgh he acquired his Masters in Public and International Affairs while majoring in Security and Intelligence Studies. He served as a Masa Israel Teaching Fellow in Rehovot, Israel, and was a Fundraising Fellow at the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC).
Dr. Navras J. Aafreedi
aafreedi@gmail.com

Dr. Navras J. Aafreedi is an Indo-Judaic Studies scholar, a Jewish-Muslim Relations Activist and Assistant Professor of History at Presidency University, Kolkata, where he teaches several self-designed courses: a Holocaust focused postgraduate course and an undergraduate course in Global Jewish History, the only such courses in Asia outside of China, Japan and Israel. He also has to his credit a Holocaust films retrospective that he organised in Lucknow (a major centre of Muslim scholarship) in 2009, which happened to be the first ever in South Asia, and a couple of Holocaust focused international multidisciplinary conferences: one at O P Jindal Global University in May 2016, which he co-organised, and the other at Presidency University, Kolkata in February 2017. Besides this, he inspired his students at Gautam Buddha University to write and enact the first ever Holocaust themed Hindi language play in 2015. He has also held a number of Holocaust themed photographic exhibitions at Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University and University of Lucknow in Lucknow, Gautam Buddha University in Greater NOIDA and Presidency University in Kolkata. He is the author of a number of publications, which include Jews, Judaizing Movements and the Traditions of Israelite Descent in South Asia (New Delhi, 2016). He is also the first person to make any worthwhile contributions to Jewish Studies in Urdu, the lingua franca of almost all South Asian Muslims, though he writes primarily in English. He has been a Visiting Fellow at Tel Aviv University, Woolf Institute, Cambridge, UK and the University of Sydney and has spoken at scholarly forums in Austria, Switzerland and USA. During his two-year tenure (2008-2010) as a Fellow of the Centre for Communication & Development Studies, Pune under its youth outreach programme, Open Space, he organised fifty-six events in his hometown Lucknow with the aim of bringing about a positive change in Muslim attitudes towards Jews, Israel and Zionism. He sits on the editorial boards of the peer-reviewed journals Journal of Indo-Judaic Studies and The Social Ion, on the international advisory board of the Asian Jewish Life and the Jerusalem Press Club, and is referee to the Journal of Studies in History & Culture and the Journal of South Asian Studies. He is currently writing with a colleague a guidebook to introducing Holocaust Studies in India, and co-editing with her a couple of volumes on Holocaust Studies.
Rev. Dr. Darryl Warren Aaron
revdarrylaaron@bellsouth.net

Rev. Dr. Darryl Warren Aaron is the Pastor of the historic Providence Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina. He completed his B.A. degree in Dramatic Literature at North Carolina Central University and received his teacher certification from University of North Carolina - Charlotte. He continued his studies at the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University where he received the Master of Divinity degree. He received his Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew University. Dr. Aaron has been actively involved in the community serving in many capacities: Brenner Hospital (Board Member), YMCA (Association Board Member), Crisis Control (Board Member), CHANGE (Strategy Board Member), Bethesda Center (present-Board Member), General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (Instructor), Lott Carey Missionary Society (Facilitator), American Baptist Churches (Instructor – Wisconsin Conference), NAACP, Habitat for Humanity, National Society of Black Engineers (Lecturer), Mecklenburg Ministries, North Carolina Association of Educators, Yale Divinity School (Lecturer and Guest Preacher), Wake Forest Divinity School (Adjunct Professor), Missions in Africa, Israel and Romania (Preacher).

Professor Seth Armus
sarmus@sjcny.edu

Professor Seth Armus is a native of Toledo, Ohio, and attended the University of Minnesota and SUNY Stony Brook where he received a Ph.D. in French history in 1998. Since that time, he has been on the faculty of St. Joseph’s College, Patchogue and Brooklyn New York, rising to the rank of Professor of History in 2007. He teaches a variety of courses in modern European history, including an annual seminar on the Holocaust. He is the author of French Anti-Americanism 1930-1948: Critical Moments in a Complex History (Lexington, 2007) a book which explored, among other things, the convergence of anti-Americanism and antisemitism in French oppositional discourse. He has written a number of articles about the French author Michel Houellebecq, most recently an examination of the Jewish subtext in Submission (French Politics, Culture, and Society Spring 2017). His current research concerns the idea of dystopia in contemporary French literature and politics.
Dr. Lawrence Amsel
Lamsel01@gmail.com

Dr. Lawrence Amsel is an academic psychiatrist on the faculty of Columbia University, where he practices, teaches and does research. His areas of focus are the understanding the long term effects of psychological trauma, the applications of Behavioral Economics and Game Theory to psychiatry, and Forensic Psychiatry.

He is the child of Holocaust survivors, which has been a key influence in every corner of his life, from becoming a healer focused on trauma, to his political and philosophical commitments. As a child and young man he received a classic, old-world Yeshiva education (largely in Yiddish) with its emphasis on Talmud and ethical behavior. Later he was active in the Soviet Jewry movement and student support for Israel. These experiences of political activism have remained important to him throughout his life.

The pleasures of rigorous thinking he first encountered in Talmud later led him to major in Mathematics at Columbia College. But once in mathematics grad school he concluded that I needed to be more involved in addressing the emotional aspects of people’s lives. He switched directions and attended Yale School of Medicine followed by a Psychiatry Residency. Subsequently, he completed a Masters in Public Health, and joined the faculty of the Columbia University medical school. There, for a number of years following 9/11, he co-directed the clinic specifically funded to focus on victims of that terrorist attack. In this capacity he encountered a large number of police officers, firefighters, and EMT’s as well as financial professionals. This gave him an intimate and in-depth view of how trauma (in particular terrorism) affects people’s political thinking, as much as it does their emotions. It became clear to him that the aggregated traumatic response of a population has a very serious impact on the political attitudes and behaviors of the body politic.

In all these areas he has been interested in how the psychiatric concepts and insights apply to broader institutional interactions and social pathologies such as Antisemitism and anti-Zionism. Going forward, he would like to merge insights and scholarship from his psychiatric practice with political perspectives derived from his activism in order to better understand the sources and nature of human biases and political distortions, such as those exemplified by contemporary Antisemitism and anti-Zionism.

Ramy Aziz
Ramy.aziz@uniroma1.it

Ramy Aziz is currently working on his PhD degree in political science, University of Rome. He earned his MA degree in International Cooperation from University of Rome. He is an Egyptian journalist and political analyst working on Middle East affairs. His articles and analysis frequently appears in The Jerusalem Post, The Washington Institute, The Times of Israel and other Arab outlets. Also, he frequently appears on interviews with news channels like Alhurra, DW and I24 news.
Dr. Edith Bruder
edithbruder@gmail.com
Dr. Edith Bruder is a research associate at the French National Center for Scientific Research (CNRS); and a research fellow at the UNISA-University of South Africa. She is a French ethnologist who has an academic multi-disciplinary background in the history of art and clinical psychology. The focus of her research is on the documentation and analysis of the history and the contemporary phenomena of Jewish practices across sub-Saharan Africa, Judaising movements, forgotten diasporas, contemporary diasporas and particular Jewish identities. Her book, The Black Jews of Africa: History, Identity, Religion (Oxford University Press, 2008 and 2012), offers an overview of both past and present Jewish activities across Africa. The broad scope of her discussion, encompassing regions ranging from West Africa to East Africa and Southern Africa is unprecedented. In view of the growing importance of this new field of study, she was minded to found in 2009 an international scholarly organization -of which she still serves as President - the International Society for the Study of African Jewry (http://issaj.com). Since 2010, this organisation has already hosted three international conferences and published the corresponding edited collections of papers in order to showcase the latest outstanding and original research available in this field. The net impact of Bruder’s work—both her own scholarship, and the collective project she is sponsoring through the ISSAJ --is to promote understanding of the global context of Jewish history and practice, and thereby reduce anti-Semitic stereotypes. More specifically, her work has helped to bring together scholars and others working in the fields of Jewish studies and African studies – two disciplines that up till now, have had very little in common.

Izzy Lemberg

A former Senior Producer of CNN’s Jerusalem bureau for twenty plus years, Izzy Lemberg is a veteran international television news producer and recipient of the prestigious Edward R. Murrow award. Based in Jerusalem, Izzy is currently working on a documentary film about anti-Semitism called Blame it on the Jews.
Dr. Rohee Dasgupta
rdgupta@jgu.edu.in

Dr. Rohee Dasgupta, Associate Professor, Executive Director, Centre for European Studies; Convener of Jindal Centre for Israel Studies, Jindal School of International Affairs (JSIA), O.P. Jindal Global University, India. She has a M.A. in Diplomatic Studies, a Postgraduate Certificate in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Program (TLHEP) and a Ph.D. in Law (specializing on Legal Anthropology) from the Research Institute for Social Sciences, Keele University, United Kingdom. By research she is an anthropologist of Jewish Identity and Culture. Her Ph.D. was on Renewal of Polish Jewish Identity and Rights in Poland post 1945. Before her fieldwork in Poland she participated in a doctoral training in Holocaust Studies organized by the Research Centre for holocaust and Twentieth Century History, Department of German at Royal Holloway, University of London, University of Manchester, the Arts and Humanities Board and the Wiener Library in the UK. She has held visiting fellowships at the Simon Dubnov Institute of Jewish Culture and History at Leipzig University, Germany; European Holocaust Research Infrastructure (EHRI) Summer School, organized by the NIOD Institute for War, Holocaust and Genocide Studies, Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Schusterman Center for Israel Studies at Brandeis University and the Levin Institute for Holocaust Education, United States Holocaust Museum, Washington D.C., USA. She is currently studying the nature of the American-Israeli Sister city partnerships. Jewish communities in St. Louis, MO and Yokneam-Megiddo, Israel is the first of such case-study where she was conducted ethnographic fieldwork. Additionally, she is completing her second masters – M.A. in Jewish Education from the Melton Center for Jewish Education at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel. She tweets @roheedg.

Dr. David Gurevich
Davidg.mbox@gmail.com

Dr. David Gurevich, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. 2014/2015, Fulbright Post-Doctoral Fellow at Harvard University. Founder, Ambassadors Online (University of Haifa), – a comprehensive academic program which trains Digital Diplomats for the international arena. Delegate of Israel to the congress Young Diplomats Forum 2013. Dr. Gurevich is an expert in archaeology and history Jerusalem. He holds the tour guide's license since 2004; his expertise on guiding foreign VIP officials and invitees of the State (ministers, MPs, and journalists). He is frequently invited to speak on Israel worldwide and advises various Public Diplomacy enterprises. Dr. Gurevich was a member of research think-tank on international affairs led by former MK Dr. Eimat Wilf in which he takes part in a policy development regarding UNRWA. The spring semester of 2014 he spent in Rome as a member of Israeli graduate delegation to UNESCO academic Israeli-Palestinian dialogue project. He takes an active part in combating anti-Semitism worldwide. He was admitted to present his finding on anti-Semitism in the Orthodox Church to His Beatitude Theophilus III, the Patriarch of Jerusalem. His research article on this topic will be published in the forthcoming issue of Israel Studies journal. In August 2014, he reported to the Israeli Parliament (Knesset) on the wave of Anti-Semitism in France after he infiltrated into an Anti-Israeli rally in Paris.
Matheus Hagedomy
hagedorny@googlemail.com

Matheus Hagedomy, current lecturer, Otto Suhr Institute for Political Science, Free University of Berlin, where an ongoing dispute about a pro-BDS colleague preoccupies associates and students. He studied Philosophy, Modern History, Constitutional, Social and Economic History, graduated from the University of Bonn in 2013. His master thesis discusses the anti-individualistic view on Thomas Hobbes Leviathan in Carl Schmitt’s Theory of Politics and verified the antisemitic core of this anti-liberalism. From 2015 to 2016 he worked as a lecturer and Program Manager of the Mideast Freedom Forum Berlin to build up an education network to combat Israel-related antisemitism. He developed a seminar syllabus and held the seminars throughout Germany. His current field of interest is the German New Right (‘Neue Rechte’) and their strategy to establish a new tradition of anti-liberal and at least antisemitic ideology. Besides that he is an occasional author for the German weekly newspaper Jungle World and studies the history of the German resistance fighter Johann Georg Elser, known for his attempted assassination of Adolf Hitler in November 1939.

Jitka Pánek Jurková
jujitka@gmail.com

Jitka Pánek Jurková, PhD candidate, Department of Anthropology, Charles University, Prague, the Czech Republic. The topic of her now finalized dissertation thesis is “Cultural diplomacy of a divided society: The case of Israel”. While conducting a 4-year long research on Israeli cultural diplomacy, she was especially stricken by the issue of cultural and academic boycott of Israel, and the lack of academic research related to its causes and consequences. Therefore, she intends to explore the issue in more depth in the following years. Jitka’s interest in cultural diplomacy stems from her long-term scholarly as well as professional engagement in the field: she has served as an advisor to multiple governmental institutions (Czech and Israeli) for cultural diplomacy; she has published in scholarly journals on the topic (International Journal of Cultural Policy; Urban People); and she has been extensively involved in non-governmental intercultural exchange as well. Jitka has been also lecturing on the relationship of arts and politics at several universities (Charles University, Charisma University, Czech Technical University).
Professor Dovid Katz
dovidkatz7@yahoo.com
Professor Dovid Katz, PhD, Oxford University, UK. In 2016 he was appointed professor at Vilnius Gediminas Technical University. He was born in New York City on 9 May 1956. He attended Etz Chaim and East Midwood elementary schools, the Yeshivah of Flatbush High School, and Columbia University where he earned his BA in Linguistics in 1978. That year he relocated to the United Kingdom to begin work on his doctoral thesis on the origins of the Semitic component in Yiddish, which he completed at London University in 1982. From 1978 to 1997 he led Yiddish studies at Oxford and built a major international program that included BA and MA courses, a doctoral program, an intensive summer course and winter symposium, and series of publication in Yiddish and English. Publications from his Oxford years include Grammar of the Yiddish Language (1987), Amended Amendments: Issues in Yiddish Stylistics (1993), and the series Winter Studies in Yiddish and Oxford Yiddish. After a year as visiting professor of Judaic Studies at Yale University (1998-1999), he relocated to Vilnius, Lithuania to take up a new chair in Yiddish studies which he held from 1999 to 2011. His books from that period include Lithuanian Jewish Culture (2004 and 2010), Words on Fire: The Unfinished Story of Yiddish (2004 and 2007), and Vilnius Jewish Book Stamps (2008). He began to publish studies on East European antisemitism and Holocaust revisionism in 2009, authoring a number of papers and articles and founding the website DefendingHistory.com which he continues to edit. His most recent book is Yiddish and Power (Palgrave Macmillan, 2015).

Professor Tamás Kovács
Kuznyecov.t@gmail.com
Professor Tamás Kovács, PhD, University of Pecs, Pecs, Hungary, concentration in 19th and 20th Century European History. Bachelor of Arts, History and History Education, University of Pecs, Pecs, Hungary. Currently, Assistant Director of Documents to 1945, National Archives of Hungary, and Historian/Archivist. Previously, Adjunct Professor / Assistant Professor, University of Panonia, Veszprem, Hungary. Prior to that, Adjunct Professor, Eotvos Lorat University, Budapest, Hungary, as well as a Research Associate at the Holocaust Memorial Center, Budapest, Hungary.
Professor Russel Lemmons
rlemmons@jsu.edu
Professor Russel Lemmons, Distinguished Professor of History, Jacksonville State University, Ph.D., Modern European History, Miami University (Ohio). Twice a Fulbright Scholar (1988-1989, 2017-2018) he is the author of two books, Goebbels and Der Angriff (1993) and Hitler's Rival (2013). He teaches courses in twentieth-century European history as well as a class on the history of modern Israel. Currently he is writing a biography of Rupert Mayer, a Jesuit priest who resisted National Socialism.

Professor Valeriia Lavrenko
yulia8095@yandex.ua
Valeriia Lavrenko, Associate Professor, Department of World History, Oles Honchar Dnipropetrovsk National University. In 2010 Valeriia received her Master’s Degree in History at Oles Honchar Dnipropetrovsk National University. In 2014 she finished her Thesis: “Adaptation of Russian Emigration to the European Societies (1917-1939): Social and Cultural Aspects” and achieved a Ph.D. in World History. From 2013 until present times she has worked at her native university as an Assistant Lecturer and Associate Professor. In April 2015 she obtained the position of Vice-Dean of Historical Faculty.
Valeriia delivers several lecture courses such as “History of Civilizations”, “History of Ethical Diasporas of Ukraine”, “History of International Relations”, “History of International Organizations”, etc.
She is interested in the study of xenophobia and participated in several projects connected with the study of this phenomenon: the project “To Remember for Future” held by Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Ukraine, the seminar “Holocaust: How to Overcome the Memory” (Auschwitz, Poland, September 2014), the international youth project, devoted to the 75th anniversary of Babyn’ Yar tragedy (Kyiv, September 2016), and the seminar for Ukrainian scholars at the International School for Holocaust Studies of Yad Vashem (Jerusalem, Israel, February 2017).

Dr. Dina Lisnyansky
Dina.lis@gmail.com
Dr. Dina Lisnyansky, Researcher and Lecturer, Department of Political Studies, Bar Ilan University, Israel. She is also a lecturer at The European Forum, an educational center for diplomats from all over the world. Her fields of research include Islam in Europe, Islam in the West, Islamic Da’wa, Islamic movements and Global Jihad.
Dr. Lisnyansky holds a PhD from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Israel, she has a vast experience of consulting and analysis for various NGOs and companies in the private sector as well as for the public sector and National Institutions.
Dina is currently working on her book, based on her PhD thesis combined with field research: "Crescents and Croissants: Preaching Islam in Europe".
Heather Mann
heather.mann@lincoln.ox.ac.uk
Heather Mann is currently completing a DPhil in History at the University of Oxford, United Kingdom, on the subject of Holocaust education under the supervision of Professor Robert Gildea and Dr Laura Tisdall. Thesis, ‘Holocaust memory and its mediation by teachers: its study in three European cities’ uses oral history to study teachers’ memory of the Holocaust in Lincoln in Britain, in Aix-en-Provence in France and Linz in Austria to study the evolution of Holocaust education, memory and national mythology inside the classroom. Her project focuses on three cities with dark histories of antisemitism. The city of Linz was incredibly supportive of Hitler’s rule, was a centre of Austrofasism from 1934, and Mauthausen, the principal concentration camp in Austria bordered the city. In Aix-en-Provence, the Jewish community, along with 2000 Jews from Eastern Europe were interned in 1941 in the Camp des Milles on the border of the city. Lincoln contrastingly enjoys a positive collective memory of the Second World War and has no explicit connections with the Holocaust. However, the city was the centre of medieval British ‘blood libel’, a history which has lingered into the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. By studying the memory of teachers between 1986 and present day, her research unpicks everyday attitudes towards the Holocaust, from the perspective of teachers, who act as memory practitioners and mediators as they select which narratives to present to their students.

Before embarking on her DPhil, she completed her Masters at the University of Oxford under the supervision of Professor Nicholas Stargardt, researching ‘What do changes in teaching the Holocaust reveal about British memory, myths and identity?’ She previously worked as the researcher for the collection of speeches ‘Anti-Semitism: The Oldest Hatred’ (2015) whilst teaching History and Mathematics in South-East England and in Cologne, Germany for four years. Her interest in education and persecution began in 2008, when she travelled with James Smith to Rwanda, during his establishment of the Kigali Memorial Centre and Museum.

Ulrike Marz
ulrike.marz@uni-rostock.de
Professor Ulrike Marz, Scientific Assistant, Department of Sociology, University of Rostock, Germany. Sociology and Political Science, University of Rostock, 2004-2008, Magister thesis on “Analysis of anti-Semitism as Social Criticism”; Social Work, Neubrandenburg, Germany, 1996-2001; the title of her Diploma thesis was “Social Work as Surveillance: On Transformation of Forms of Social Surveillance in Social Work”. She was born in 1976 in Wolgast, Germany. After that she worked as a counselor at a state-funded support center for victims of right-wing violence in Neubrandenburg/ Germany. At the time of her Magister thesis she already had several jobs as student assistant at the department of sociology in Rostock. Her dissertation thesis “Islamic Anti-Semitism as Resistance against Western Modernity in the Islamic Republic of Iran” was published 2014 in German. Ulrike Marz is giving courses on the following topics: anti-Semitism and social criticism, theories on anti-Semitism in social science, Islamic anti-Semitism, researches on prejudices, criticism in social science, ideology of ‘race’ or contemporary forms and developments of racism in Germany. She has written articles in German on racism, anti-Semitism and Critical Theory. Her current research is focused on a Critical Theory of racism and authoritarianism in Germany.
Dr. Michael Meir
michael@empowermentexpertsgroup.com

Dr. Michael Meir is a Psychotherapist, Licensed Mental Health Counselor, and accomplished cardiologist, researcher, trainer, educator coach seminar, recognized for his leadership role in human development with a prominent record in Argentina as well as the United States. Dr. Meir is a former Dean of Health Sciences and Technologies at TCI College, New York. He has been a key figure in the development of The R. Bertisch Institute (Argentina.)

He has served as Vice president and Senior Trainer for Synergistic International, Argentina; Professor at the School of Counselors of R. Bertisch Foundation, trainer for the Foreign Ministry’s in Argentina. Michael has conducted Business Trainings and Workshops for several political parties and Chambers of Commerce including the New York State Federation of Hispanic Chambers of Commerce and many private and governmental organizations.

He has distinguished himself for his dedication and profound knowledge of Israeli and Jewish issues and his involvement in local Jewish Communities wherever he is. Author and co-author of several books papers published in different scientific journals. He participated actively in the APA (American Psychological Association.)

Said Musayev
saidmusayev@yahoo.fr

Mr. Said Musayev is currently a Ph.D candidate in Political Science, Institute of Human Rights Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences. He was born in Bilasuvar, Azerbaijan. He received his Bachelors in European Studies and International Relations faculty of the University of Languages (2005-2009). He graduated from Political Science of the University of Montesquieu Bordeaux IV (2011-2012) and from Community Integration and European Neighbourhood Policy of the University of Reims Champagne-Ardenne in France (2012-2014). In 2016, Said was the first Azerbaijani graduate from the program "Israel, his economy and society" of the European Digital University of Jewish Studies-UNEJJ, a project led by the Elie Wiesel Institute and the Alliance Israélite Universelle (AIU). He is the Founder Chairman of LICRA Azerbaijan (International League against Racism and Anti-Semitism), a Paris-based international Jewish organization founded in 1927.
Jason O’Connor
Joconno7@fau.edu
Jason O’Connor is currently a Ph.D. student at Florida Atlantic University, Comparative Studies department, with a focus on post-Communist Polish-Jewish relations. He was born in South Africa and raised in Israel. He has a MA in Holocaust and Genocide Studies, Gratz College (2014), an MA in Near East and Judaic Studies, Brandies University (2005), and a BA in Judaic Studies and Political Science from Florida Atlantic University (2002). He teaches IB History, Honors Comparative Government, and Honors World History at North Broward Preparatory School (U.S.). In addition, he is one of the educators for the Southern Region of the March of the Living. He has participated in various programs related to antisemitism and the Holocaust in Israel, Germany, Poland, Lithuania and Belarus, England and Australia.

Dr. Katarzyna Person
kperson@jhi.pl
Professor Katarzyna Person, PhD, History, Royal Holloway, University of London. She is an assistant professor at the Jewish Historical Institute in Warsaw and the coordinator of the Underground Archive of the Warsaw Ghetto publication project. She has held postdoctoral fellowships from Yad Vashem’s International Institute for Holocaust Research, the Center for Jewish History in New York, and La Fondation pour la Mémoire de la Shoah. As a Humboldt postdoctoral fellow in the IfZ in Munich, she is currently finishing a book project dealing with Jews from Poland in the displaced persons camps in Germany. She has written a number of articles on the Holocaust and its aftermath in Europe, and has edited five volumes of documents from the Underground Archive of the Warsaw Ghetto. Her book, Assimilated Jews in the Warsaw Ghetto 1940-1943, was published in 2014 by Syracuse University Press.

Professor Repan Oleh
ukr-mova@ukr.net
Professor Repan Oleh achieved the academic rank of Associate Professor in 2004. From 1995 till present he has taught at the Department of History of Ukraine in Oles Honchar Dnipropetrovsk National University. He resides in Dnipro, Ukraine. In 2003 he received his Candidate degree by defending the thesis “Left-bank Cossacks and Russian-Turkish War 1735-1739”. His courses include “History of Ukraine”, “History of Ukrainian Culture”, “History of International Relationships of Ukraine” with special attention to Ukrainian-Jewish relationships in different periods of history. In the course “History of Ukrainian Culture”, an important topic is the consideration of national stereotypes and prejudices, among them Ukrainophobia, antisemitism and so on. He has over 50 publications.
Professor Daniel M. Roberts
droberts@vsu.edu

Professor Daniel M. Roberts, Executive Director, Honors Program and Special Initiatives, Virginia State University (VSU). He holds a bachelor’s degree in Political Science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, master’s degrees in public policy and political science from Carnegie Mellon University and the Pennsylvania State University respectively, and a doctorate in educational leadership from the Virginia Commonwealth University. His professional experience over the past 15 years has principally involved high-achieving students and international education. At VSU, under Roberts’ leadership, the Honors Program has experienced a 45% growth in membership, and even greater growth in scholarship support and programming for students. He currently serves as the President of the Virginias Collegiate Honors Council (VCHC) (2015-2017), and is a recognized national program reviewer for the National Collegiate Honors Council (NCHC) (2017-2019). Prior to his arrival to VSU, Roberts served as the director of the European Office of the Institute of International Education. There he was responsible for scholarship administration, program management and development, study abroad programming, and international student recruitment.

Roberts is the recipient of a Fulbright Fellowship and remains a lifetime member of the Fulbright Alumni Association. He has led groups of students and faculty members to countries on five continents and has traveled or lived in nearly 50 countries. His interest and subsequent academic research in democratization and post-communist transitions followed from his undergraduate year abroad, first as an intern in South Africa working for the anti-apartheid organization Get Ahead, and then as an exchange student in Hungary.

Stefanie Rome
scbrome320@gmail.com

Stefanie Rome is a doctoral student, graduate research assistant and a Gus T. Ridgel Fellow at the University of Missouri-Columbia, where she is pursuing her PhD in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis. Stefanie is the former Assistant Director of the Hook Center for Educational Renewal in the College of Education at MU, the former Director of 5Essentials at UChicago Impact in the University of Chicago’s Urban Education Institute and the Director of Curriculum and Professional Development for the National Urban Alliance for Effective Education. She has spent more than 20 years as a classroom teacher, teacher mentor and instructional coach, committed to the creation of pedagogical spaces where student culture is honored and celebrated.
Dr. Dániel Róna
Daniel.rona@uni-corvinus.hu
Dániel Róna graduated in 2008 and completed his PhD in 2014 at Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary. He wrote his dissertation about the European far-right parties and, in particular, about Jobbik. He published his work as a book having won the book-award of the Hungarian Academy of Science. His special field of interest is public opinion polling, electoral politics and political sociology. He worked at the Hungarian Election Study (HES) in 2009, and at the Budapest Public Policy Research Institute between 2010 and 2012. He worked for the party “Dialogue for Hungary” during the 2014 national election campaign. Since 2016 he has been the research director of the Jewish organization Action and Protection Foundation. He has had several joint projects and publication with the Medián polling company regarding migration, anti-Semitism and other xenophobic attitudes. He is a member of the Active Youth research Group which conducted three surveys among the political preferences of the Hungarian university and college students. As an Assistant Professor, Dániel Róna teaches courses at Corvinus University of Budapest. He studied at the Erasmus University of Rotterdam as an Erasmus exchange student. He participated at three methodological summer school (organized by the ECPR at Ljubljana in 2009 and 2010 and by the UPF RECSM in Barcelona in 2012). In 2013 he won the Sasakawa Young Leaders Fellowship grant. He was a guest lecturer at the University College London in February 2016. In 2017 he won the ‘Aruél Kolnai’ prize of the Hungarian Political Science Association (awarded for the best political science publication in 2016).

Professor Alessandro Saggioro alessandro.saggioro@uniroma1.it
Professor Alessandro Saggioro, Associate Professor, Storia delle religioni, Dipartimento di Storia, Culture, Religioni, Sapienza Università di Roma. 1994 Graduated in History of Religions (Humanities), Sapienza University of Rome (1993 one year fellowship Erasmus in Germany); 1999 PhD in History of Religions, Sapienza University of Rome; 2004-2006 Fellowship at Istituto Italiano di Scienze Umane (Florence). Coordinator of the teach staff of the PhD Courses in Religious Studies, Sapienza University of Rome (2010-15), Coordinator of the teaching staff of the PhD Courses in History of Europe, Sapienza University of Rome (2007-2016). Director of the Research project “Defining Religious Pluralism” (Sapienza 2015-2017); Member of the International project based in Spain HAR2015-66453-R. “The Rise of Intolerance in the Mediterranean: In Search of the Origins of Religious Conflict (II-VI centuries AD)”. Investigador Principal: Maria del Mar Marcos; (2016-2019). Financed by the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness (Ministerio de Economía y Competitividad);
Professor Vivian Shulman
Vivian.shulman@csi.cuny.edu
Professor Vivian Shulman, associate professor, School of Education at the College of Staten Island (CSI), City University of New York. An educational psychologist with a specialty in measurement, she teaches graduate courses in psychology and educational research, and mentors graduate students in their research projects. Shulman’s recent research focuses on the characterization and evaluation of the role of leaders in implementing changes in schools, and on the evaluation of professional development programs. Work in these areas has been published in Education and Urban Society, International Journal of Leadership in Education, and The New Educator. Shulman has assumed leadership roles in national research associations (chair in several American Educational Leadership Association (AERA) SIGs), and at her local college, (chair, deputy chair, coordinator of graduate educational research). Before assuming these leadership roles, Shulman served as in-house evaluator of the Discovery Institute, a grant funded City University professional development center housed at the College of Staten Island.

Professor Shuqin Zhang
Sqzhang830@sina.com
Professor Shuqin Zhang teaches at Ludon University, Yantai, Shandong Province, China. Shuqin teaches Masters courses on Judaism Study, as well as European and American Jewish History. She teaches Undergraduate courses in History of Medieval World, as well as Jewish History and Culture. In the past decade she has been focused on the history of European Jews. Currently, she is doing some research on Medieval Anti-Semitism in European Countries. Her publications include, Jewish Women in Western Medieval Europe, The People’s Publishing House, 2009; Motherhood of God (by Meyer Gruber), China Social Science Press, 2009. The Struggle for Soviet Jewry in American Politics: Israel versus the American Jewish Establishment (by Fred A. Lazin), The Commercial Press, 2014.
Dr. Viera Žúborová
viera.zuborova@ucm.sk

Dr. Viera Žúborová is political scientist by background and she operates at the Faculty of Social Sciences of University of St. Cyril and Methodius in Trnava, Slovakia since 2008. During these years she operates at the faculty also as the vice-dean from research and strategic project, and leaded the Department of political science and European studies. She also works as managing editor of Slovak Journal of Political science. Since 2016 she operates as senior research fellow at the think-tank Centre for European and North Atlantic Affairs (CENAA). She focuses on issues of political communication, and migration discourse, tranzitology and question on post-communism. As a visiting PhD scholar, she operated at the The Université libre de Bruxelles (2010). Viera Žúborová is the co-founder of non-profit organization Trnavska alternativa, and also the co-founder of non-profit organization Mladá Archa, she served there as director from 2015. Both non-profit organization focus on organising the various educational and creative activities supporting critical thinking of the students and youth, including realization of project that are focusing on the development of public space and active participation at the local level. Viera Žúborová is also from 2015 regular columnist at the online newspapers Aktuality.sk.
Undergraduates-in-Residence

Eden Mia Hoffman
hoffmaneden@gmail.com

Eden Mia Hoffman, currently completing undergraduate degree, The Gallatin School of Individualized Study, New York University. Prior to her studies at NYU, Eden spent a year in Jerusalem, Israel and it was there that her strong drive for Israel advocacy developed. While in her first year at NYU, Eden became involved in a number of groups on campus, like TAMID at NYU, an apolitical areligious group on college campuses throughout the globe that develops the professional skills of undergraduate students through hands-on interaction with the Israeli economy. As the Vice-President of the group at NYU, she, along with 119 other fellows from varying campuses, spent the summer in Tel Aviv, Israel, interning and immersing themselves in the Israeli tech scene. During that time, Eden worked in cyber security, after participating in the first TAVtech Fellowship in January of that same year, which brought 20 students from Harvard and NYU to Israel to study computer coding, data science and entrepreneurship. This past semester, Eden took a leave of absence from NYU to pursue an independent research project titled “Understanding Genocide: Inter-generational Abstraction and Dilution Through Three Generations Grappling with the Holocaust” for which she received a grant to conduct.

Simultaneously, Eden worked in the media department of the Consulate General of Israel in New York and worked independently on her academic concentration which explores historiography in the digital age. Currently, Eden is a fellow in the Simon Wiesenthal Government Advocacy Program, working in the congressional office of the 57th District of New York. She also serves as the President of Chabad House Bowery and as an interim board member of NETWORK: The American Union of Jewish Students.

Tiara Selby
tselby@umes.edu

Tiara Selby, senior Criminal Justice major, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, a Historically Black College, 1890 Land Grant University. Tiara is passionate about inclusion, social justice and diversity, as exemplified by her work as a note-taker for students with disabilities. She’s an advocate inspired to devote her life to protecting the rights of victims of social injustices. During the Spring 2017 semester, Ms. Selby was enrolled in a junior Honors seminar centered on Anti-Semitism: “The Ignorance, Silence and Violence of Antisemitism: Ideas, Words and Deeds of a Genocide.” The course, taught by Dr. Michael Lane, was inspired by and designed during Lane’s participation in the 2016 ISGAP Oxford Institute.

She presented a presentation on Blood Libels that was brilliantly executed, demonstrating her capacity to perform quality research on a sensitive topic and to deliver the material to her peers with a voice of authority. Tiara embodies Honors by virtue of her academic excellence, leadership, research, creative endeavors, philanthropy, civic engagement and social justice. She maintains an impressive 3.7 GPA and was recently inducted into Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society serving as 2017-18 Vice President of this prestigious organization. Tiara serves as an Honors Vanguard who readily lends a helping hand in and outside of the honors office. Tiara is currently an intern for the United States Department of Agriculture and this will be her second summer with them. Ms. Selby enthusiastically seizes professional development opportunities to grow personally and professionally.